This matter is before the Court on the defendant, Daniel Lacy's unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [75]. Counsel is involved in a multi-defendant murder trial specially set for the month of February 2024. The government and counsel for co-defendants, Taft Burton and Emily Clayton have indicated they have no objection to the continuance. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [75] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for all defendants, now set for February 5, 2024, is continued to April 1, 2024.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and April 1, 2024, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would unreasonably deny the defendant continuity of counsel, or would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: January 23, 2024.

United States Magistrate Judge
